

THE SCHOOL BOOK OFFER

WILL BE

Discontinued After Saturday, Mar. 2d, 1912

It had been our intention to discontinue the offer on Saturday, February 24th, but some misunderstanding of our plans seemed evident so we made the change.

HOW TEACHERS SHOULD PROCEED

We would advise that all subscriptions be mailed in as soon as convenient. The subscriptions must be mailed so as to be post marked on or before Saturday, March 2d. This gives plenty of time to see everybody. Mail the last subscription Saturday afternoon, March 2d. Any Teacher desiring a mailing list of those in his or her neighborhood will be provided with it from this office. Write for one right away.

The selection of Books must be made on or before Saturday, March 9th.

THE OFFER.

These books will either be given away in single sets or in a whole set. For six new subscribers to The Advertiser or eight old subscriptions renewed we will give any of the single sets. Or for 70 new subscribers to The Advertiser or for 90 old subscribers, we will give the entire set, or for a pro rata number of each.

Shakespeare's Works

Do not forget the Gollancz Edition of Shakespeare, which is offered for 25 New Subscribers or for 30 Old Ones. This is a set of Books that the Teachers and Children should have as references at all times.

JUST ONE PRIZE!

To put some zest and enthusiasm into this campaign, we are going to offer just one prize. It is going to be a beautiful heavy crushed leather bound volume of the poems of one of the world's famous poets. This book is going to be given to the first, school library or individual that brings in the largest amount of subscription money. It will be thus seen that the prize winner will be the one who does the most consistent work. The poet is to be selected by the winner of the prize.

While this offer is made to appeal more directly to school teachers, any public library, private individual who is ambitious for books, any Sunday School or any other organization is at liberty to take advantage of it.

As we do not intend ordering out a large quantity of the books at once, the winners of the prizes will be able to make their selection from this office and have the books ordered as wanted. Do not delay but start out at once.

Where Desired, We will be Glad to Substitute in any of the Above Offers
